Harvard winners

RECEIVING a cash prize of RM2,000, a copy of the Harvard Prize Book, a certificate from Harvard Club Malaysia, and coupled with an internship opportunity with the Harvard Club Malaysia, Sunway International School's (SIS) grade II student Edmund Chung Sim Wea has been named one of the Harvard Prize Book Award winners this year.

Edmund received his prize from Harvard Club Malaysia president, Tan Sri Lin See Yan. The other winners are Lee Shirley, Loo Foong Ann and Chong Zhen Yuen.

Presented annually to outstanding students that demonstrate excellence in scholarship with exceptional contributions and engagement in community service, the Harvard Prize Book Award is given out in more than 1,900 high schools globally. In Malaysia, the Harvard Prize Book Competition has been held among students in various Sunway College divisions for the past seven years under the eyes of the Harvard Club of Malaysia.
